NATIONAL INSTITUTE FOR THE EMPOWERMENT OF PERSONS WITH INTELLECTUAL DISABILITIES (DIVYANGJAN)

ABOUT THE INSTITUTE:

The National Institute for the Empowerment of Persons with Intellectual Disabilities (Divyangjan),(formerly NIMH) established in 1984 and personnel in 07 different long-term programmes recognized by RCI and affiliated to different Universities. NIEPID has organized many international and national conferences. In the continuous rehabilitation education programmes, more than one lakh rehabilitation and health professionals, personnel and government officials participated. It has a team of highly qualified faculty members and specialists of various disciplines who are engaged not only in these HRD activities but also in the research and development programmes, some of which are in collaboration with international organizations.

These objectives apart, NIEPID has developed service models and contributed very significantly in the dissemination and documentation. The performance in the extension and outreach programmes is excellent covering large areas across the country. It is a “Vision”, “Mission” and “Value” driven organization having work culture appropriate to higher education. The Institute is a “Learning Organization”. The Institute’s values extend to equal opportunity, participation of people and gender-just practices.

OBJECTIVES

NIEPID has the following objectives:

- To develop models of care and habilitation
- To develop Human Resources
- To undertake research and development
- To undertake consultancy services to voluntary organizations
- To organize documentation and dissemination
- To conduct extension and outreach programmes

ABOUT THE COURSE AND ITS GENERAL OBJECTIVES

M.Phil in Rehabilitation Psychology: The course is designed to create a cadre of highly competent Professionals / Specialists at the Master Trainer level in the field of Rehabilitation Psychology.

Rehabilitation psychology is emerging as a forceful and dynamic discipline in the disability rehabilitation area which however has yet to establish in an organized manner. Hence, there is a basic need to train professionals at high level of competence.

Rehabilitation psychologists qualified at M.Phil level can undertake large number of long term training programmes at different levels for delivery of services in the field of disability to meet the enormous demands of rehabilitation professionals and personnel in the country.

As a part of human resource development and creation of skilled manpower with excellence in the field of disability, M.Phil in Rehabilitation Psychology programme was initiated. The course is modeled after the M.Phil programme in Clinical Psychology offered by NIMHANS and Central Institute of Psychiatry, Ranchi. This model has been time tested and perhaps the only available model in existence in India for pursuing advanced studies for those who have already obtained master’s degree in psychology or equivalent qualification.

This course is different from regular M.Phil course and hence the pattern of teaching and examination will vary accordingly. The regular M.Phil course is an academic and research oriented course while this course focuses on practical experience in Rehabilitation Psychology. The passed out candidates of this course can work as practitioners and master trainers in the field.

OVERALL AIM AND GENERAL OBJECTIVES OF THE COURSE

Aim:

The aim of M.Phil in Rehabilitation Psychology course is to create professionals with high quality competencies to work as master trainers/specialists in the field of disability.

General Objectives:

The course is organized as rigorous two year programme with extensive theoretical inputs and intensive practical skills training in disability rehabilitation.

The function of rehabilitation psychologist will involve a convergence of three roles, namely, Clinician, Counsellor, and Social/Community Psychologist.

On completion of the course, the trainees are expected to perform the following functions:

- Screening and early identification of persons with disabilities.
- Comprehensive psychological assessment and diagnosis of persons with disabilities.
- Apply psychological principles and techniques in rehabilitation of persons with disabilities.
- Work towards social and community integration of persons with disabilities.
- Undertake research in the areas of disability and rehabilitation psychology.
- Undertake teaching assignments in rehabilitation psychology
