NATIONAL INSTITUTE FOR THE EMPOWERMENT OF PERSONS WITH INTELLECTUAL DISABILITIES (DIVYANGJAN) SECUNDERABAD

1.0 ABOUT THE INSTITUTE:

The National Institute for the Empowerment of Persons with Intellectual Disabilities (Divyangjan), Secunderbad formerly known as National Institute for the Mentally Handicapped established in 1984 and 07 different long-term programmes recognized by RCI and affiliated to different Universities. NIMH has organized many international and national conferences. In the continuous rehabilitation education programmes, more than one lakh rehabilitation and health professionals, personnel and government officials participated. It has a team of highly qualified faculty members and specialists of various disciplines who are engaged not only in these HRD activities but also in the research and development programmes, some of which are in collaboration with international organizations.

These objectives apart, NIEPID has developed service models and contributed very significantly in the dissemination and documentation. The performance in the extension and outreach programmes is excellence covering large areas across the country. It is a "Vision", "Mission" and "Value" driven organization having work culture appropriate to higher education. The Institute is a "Learning Organization". The Institute's values extend to equal opportunity, participation of people and gender-just practices.

1.1 NATURE OF THE COURSE:

With increasing emphasis on productive and remunerative employment of persons with Intellectual Disabilities, the institutions require trained human resources who can conduct vocational training programmes in a professional manner. Therefore, a composite course was envisaged with components from diverse fields of psychology, special education, engineering, social work, business management, accountancy, book-keeping and community aspects.

The vocational instructor thus trained should be able to study the job market demands and accordingly undertake training of persons with Intellectual Disabilities for gainful and remunerative production.

The Curriculum content envisaged in this course correlates to the Job market demands on one hand and conceptual understanding on the other. Therefore, with adequate theory inputs, having emphasis on practical and field placements in real or simulated environments, this course will train vocational instructors to provide services of vocational rehabilitation and adult independent living skills for persons with Intellectual Disabilities. This is the first level basic course designed for service providers.

2.0 OBJECTIVES:

Overall aim of the course is to prepare a cadre of trained personnel to provide services in the area of vocational rehabilitation including adult independent skills in persons with Intellectual Disabilities functioning at various levels to lead them towards independent life as far as possible.

2.1 SPECIFIC OBJECTIVES:

Acquire required knowledge on various aspects such as medical, psychological, educational, technology, community work and management related to vocational rehabilitation and adult independent living of persons with Intellectual Disabilities.

Demonstrate skills to assess, plan, implement and evaluate vocational training programmes for persons with Intellectual Disabilities individually and in groups, at various work settings.

Develop competences to contact employers, identify suitable jobs, prepare job analysis and learn possible trades in a professional manner so as to enable to train the persons with Intellectual Disabilities in suitable jobs for placement.

Acquire the basic skills to prepare jigs and fixtures and transform the technical know-how to develop suitable adaptive devices and TLMs (Teaching Learning Materials) for vocational rehabilitation and adult independent living.

Demonstrate skills necessary for providing training to persons with Intellectual Disabilities in adult living skills irrespective of their intellectual levels, in various environment such as home, community and work place.

3.0 JOB OPPORTUNITIES:

The successful candidates will be suitable for placement as vocational instructors. Job opportunities are predominantly available in voluntary organisations. It is estimated that out of 1000 special schools/Institutions for persons with Intellectual Disabilities 60% of them have vocational training facilities. In recent years many vocational training cum group employment centres have been established in non-traditional vocations. Another recent trend has been to seek employment of persons with Intellectual Disabilities in supported and open job situations. The vocational training and employment for persons with Intellectual Disabilities is an emerging area having better prospects.

4.0 SCOPE:

Successful candidates of DVR (ID) course will have vocational openings as:

- Vocational instructor
- Placement officer
- Incharge of vocational and production centres
- Vocational counselor and guide
- Rehabilitation Assistant
- Job work trainer (job coach)

Further this is to inform that currently there are over twelve hundred special educational facilities in India run by non government organizations. These organizations need to extend vocational courses for the persons with mentally handicapped, they will be on constant search for qualified vocational instructors. There is also a great need of trained professionals to prepare accessible environment for the empowerment of persons with Intellectual Disabilities. With the growing awareness about adequate training programmes for the persons with Intellectual Disabilities and disabilities, there exists a vast potential of employment”.

5.0 ELIGIBILITY:

Minimum entry qualification for admission to certificate and diploma level courses will be 50% marks at class 12th examinations from any recognized board of Central/State Government.
